ANN HALSTEAD.

Was born May 21/1761, and died August 30/1824, daughter of Caleb and Rebecca (Ogden) Halstead, and was called Nancy. William Leon Halstead's "The story of the Halsteads of the U.S.A.", 1934, gives some interesting details of her life. There are two inscriptions on her tombstone in the Baptist Church Cemetery at Lyons Farms, near Elizabethtown New Jersey, as follows:-

"For love of country was carressed
By Washington and all his guests."

"Underneath this stone doth lie
As much virtue as could die
Which when alive did vigor give
To as much beauty aa could live

She married Joseph Camp, born at Camptown, N.J., January 26/1762, died there April 13/1831, (from Joseph Camp Lindsley's bible), son of Caleb Camp. born 1732, died April 9/1817, name of Caleb's wife unknown. Caleb was the son of Joseph 1710-1780 and Patience --(1st wife)Camp. Joseph was the son of Samuel 1669-1744 and Johanna 1676-1763 --- Camp. Samuel was the son of William 16--1699 and Mary (Smith) ---1694 Campe, one of the original settlers of Elizabethtown from Milford, Conn. or Branford
